IX. Statement of claim:

- A. State here as briefly as possible the facts of your claim. Describe how each named defendant is involved. Include the names of other persons involved, dates and places. Describe specifically the injuries incurred. Do not give legal arguments or cite cases or statutes. You may do that in Item "B" below. If you allege related claims, number and set forth each claim in a separate paragraph. Use as much space as you need to state the facts. Attach extra sheets, if necessary. Unrelated separate claims should be raised in a separate civil action.

during my time in Pulaski County Jail I made multiple attempts (which were denied/ignored) to go to the Law Library by kiosk & throw visible request to Marcus Robison & Pon Sherrell until PAM Sherrell was replaced by April Bryan to whom I've made more visible attempts to go to the Law Library until I eventually spoke to Sheriff Jimmy Beach about being denied to go to the Law Library, he asked me that April Bryan would take care of it, out of the entire 8 months of me being there I never was allowed to go to the Law Library.

- B. State briefly your legal theory or cite appropriate authority:

denying me the ability to go to the Law Library is a Civil Rights violation protected by the 9th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution

X. Relief: State briefly exactly what you want the court to do for you. Make no legal arguments.
hold those accountable for infringing on my rights by forcing them to pay the requested funds.
